

the f word:
stories of forgiveness

Are you worried about violence in Harrow?

Should we live as people of peace when we live in a violent world?

Join us on Thursday 8th November 7.30-9.30pm at St Michael and All Angels Church, 95 Bishop Ken Road Road,
Harrow. HA3 7HP

Speakers include; Sara Hyde - Labour councillor for Islington working with women in prisons, Khadija Gulamhusein from North Harrow Mosque, Michael Luke, Gangs worker with Ignite and Pamela Fitzpatrick, Local councillor for Harrow and parliamentary Candidate

Come and be part of the conversation

Please register for a free ticket at people-of-peace.eventbrite.com

Should we live as people of peace when we live in a violent world?

Join us on Thursday 8th November 7.30-9.30pm at St Michael and All Angels Church, 95 Bishop Ken Road Road,
Harrow. HA3 7HP

Speakers include; Sara Hyde - Labour councillor for Islington working with women in prisons, Khadija Gulamhusein from North Harrow Mosque, Michael Luke, Gangs worker with Ignite and Pamela Fitzpatrick, Local councillor for Harrow and parliamentary Candidate

Come and be part of the
conversation

Please register for a free ticket at people-of-peace.eventbrite.com

the f word:
stories of forgiveness

Are you worried about violence in Harrow?

the f word:
stories of forgiveness

Are you worried about violence in Harrow?

Should we live as people of peace when we live in a violent world?

Join us on Thursday 8th November 7.30-9.30pm at St Michael and All Angels Church, 95 Bishop Ken Road Road,
Harrow. HA3 7HP

Speakers include; Sara Hyde - Labour councillor for Islington working with women in prisons, Khadija Gulamhusein from North Harrow Mosque, Michael Luke, Gangs worker with Ignite and Pamela Fitzpatrick, Local councillor for Harrow and parliamentary Candidate

Come and be part of the
conversation

Please register for a free ticket at people-of-peace.eventbrite.com

Should we live as people of peace when we live in a violent world?

Join us on Thursday 8th November 7.30-9.30pm at St Michael and All Angels Church, 95 Bishop Ken Road Road,
Harrow. HA3 7HP

Speakers include; Sara Hyde - Labour councillor for Islington working with women in prisons, Khadija Gulamhusein from North Harrow Mosque, Michael Luke, Gangs worker with Ignite and Pamela Fitzpatrick, Local councillor for Harrow and parliamentary Candidate

Come and be part of the
conversation

Please register for a free ticket at people-of-peace.eventbrite.com

the f word:
stories of forgiveness

Are you worried about violence in Harrow?